Dear Parishioners,

Now that school is beginning and summer vacation is winding down, it's time to begin thinking about annual fall events. Most important among these is the annual Eucharistic Congress! The Congress will take place Friday and Saturday (30-31 August 2024) at the Charlotte Convention Center. The Congress is getting revamped this year, and it will begin on Friday evening with a concert featuring Christian artist Sarah Kroger. This will be followed by talks by Adoration Ultra runner Jimmy Coleman and Bishop Martin. There will also be an exclusive screening of Triumph of the Heart, a feature-length movie about St. Maximilian Kolbe.

The Congress will continue on Saturday with a Eucharistic procession, holy hour, and talks from nationally-known Catholic speakers. The Congress will conclude Saturday evening with a Mass offered by our bishop. There are also programs for families with children, tracks for high school and college students, as well as tracks for Hispanic and Vietnamese Catholics.

I strongly encourage you to come! If you would like more information, please visit the website at: <http://www.goeucharist.com/>. Please keep in mind that there will be no Saturday confessions or anticipated Mass on August 31, per our bishop's request, so that all priests can attend the closing Mass of the Congress. Our Masses on Sunday will be as usual. I'm sorry for any inconvenience to those of you who usually attend the Saturday evening Mass.

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) begins on Monday, 09 September 2024. RCIA is the preparatory process for anyone who wishes to become a Catholic. Our classes meet on Mondays from 7 p.m. – 8:30 p.m. in the Allen Center until the end of May. Once again, I encourage any of you who have friends or loved ones who are interested in learning more about Catholicism to join our RCIA class. Simply call Sr. Lydia at 704-523-4641, ext. 221, to enroll.

Faith Formation classes will begin on Sunday, 08 September 2024. Registration is open now. Classes take place on Sundays in St. Ann's School between the 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. Masses. Keep an eye as well on the bulletin for information about our annual parish Carnival, which will be Saturday, 02 November 2024.

Yours in Jesus and Mary,

Equipping Parents in their Mission of Love and Building a Community of Joy

“What we have heard and know; things our ancestors have recounted to us. We do not keep them from our children; we recount them to the next generation, The praiseworthy deeds of the LORD and his strength, the wonders that he performed. God made a decree in Jacob, established a law in Israel: Which he commanded our ancestors, they were to teach their children; That the next generation might come to know, children yet to be born. In turn they were to recount them to their children, that they too might put their confidence in God, And not forget God's deeds, but keep his commandments.” Psalm 78:3-7

Save the Date: St. Ann Family Ministry Kick Off: September 1 after morning masses
Details: Short talk in the Allen center cafeteria for parents, outlining the plans for the year while children can play on the playground with supervision or young children can play quietly in the room with provided toys. There will be coffee and donuts available as well.

Catholic Charities Diocese of Charlotte is joining with the Catholic Charities network around the country to participate in We Are There, a national awareness campaign highlighting the life-giving services Catholic Charities agencies provide in their local communities.

For 75 years, Catholic Charities has brought comfort, hope and relief to our neighbors, regardless of their faith, in the Diocese of Charlotte. Catholic Charities' work impacts the 46 counties of the diocese through its strategic locations in Charlotte, Greensboro, Winston-Salem, Lenoir, North Wilkesboro, Asheville and Murphy. In the past year alone, the agency served nearly 23,000 people, distributing over 600,000 pounds of food and aiding nearly 900 refugees. The work that Catholic Charities does in western North Carolina is mirrored by services provided at Catholic Charities agencies around the country. There are 168 independent Catholic Charities agencies and 3,900 collective locations spread out across the United States and its five territories. Collectively, the Catholic Charities network served more than 15 million people last year and provided more than 30 million meals to those in need. The dedicated, selfless staff of Catholic Charities agencies are aided in this work by the indispensable contributions of more than 215,000 volunteers nationwide. The services offered by each local Catholic Charities agency differ because they are tailored to the specific needs of the vulnerable members of their individual communities.

Catholic Charities USA, the national membership organization for Catholic Charities agencies, organized and launched the We Are There campaign. Over the coming months, the campaign will raise awareness for Catholic Charities' work through a variety of national media outlets. Here in western North Carolina, Catholic Charities will continue to highlight the different ways we aid and accompany our neighbors in need. To learn more about the We Are There campaign, visit WeAreThere.US. To volunteer or make a gift to support the work of Catholic Charities Diocese of Charlotte, visit ccdccc.org.
