Dear Parishioners,

As the new school year gets underway, I hope many of you have already registered your children for Faith Formation, which will begin in just a couple of weeks. Please check the parish website for the Faith Formation schedule. Any questions you have can be directed to either Virginia Blatchford, our Faith Formation Director, or her assistant, Clare Beltran, at the Faith Formation office: 704-523-4641, ext. 231.

As we prepare to start up Faith Formation classes in a couple of weeks, it's also time to prepare for RCIA (The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults). This is our class for those who are interested in converting to Catholicism. If you or anyone you know is interested in learning more about our Catholic Faith, our first RCIA class will be Monday, 09 September 2024 at 7pm. We meet in Classrooms 1&2 of the Activity Center.

And please don't forget the annual Eucharistic Congress, which will take place this coming Friday and Saturday (30-31 August 2024) at the Charlotte Convention Center. The Congress is getting revamped this year, and it will begin on Friday evening with a concert featuring Christian artist Sarah Kroger. This will be followed by talks by Adoration Ultra runner Jimmy Coleman and Bishop Martin. There will also be an exclusive screening of Triumph of the Heart, a feature-length movie about St. Maximilian Kolbe.

The Congress will continue on Saturday with a Eucharistic procession, holy hour, and talks from nationally-known Catholic speakers. The Congress will conclude Saturday evening with a Mass offered by our bishop. There are also programs for families with children, tracks for high school and college students, as well as tracks for Hispanic and Vietnamese Catholics.

I strongly encourage you to come! If you would like more information, please visit the website at: <http://www.goucharist.com/>. Please keep in mind that there will be no Saturday confessions or anticipated Mass on August 31, per our bishop's request, so that all priests can attend the closing Mass of the Congress. Our Masses on Sunday will be as usual. I'm sorry for any inconvenience to those of you who usually attend the Saturday evening Mass.

Lastly, our next parish pilgrimage will be to northern Italy, Slovenia, and Croatia. It'll take place right after Easter: April 21 – May 2, 2025. Highlights include visiting the tombs of many saints, such as St. Ambrose, St. Charles Borromeo, St. Augustine, St. Dominic, St. Luke, and St. Anthony. As next year is slated to be a holy year, we will try to see the Shroud of Turin if it is put on display (as it normally is during holy years). You can find information on trip to going to: <https://www.tektonministries.org/wp-content/uploads/2024/07/250421-ITSC-REI-brochure-web.pdf>

This pilgrimage brochure is also available on the parish website. I hope you can join us!

Yours in Christ,

Plan Today for a Peaceful Tomorrow

August is Make-a-Will Month, an ideal time to create or update your will. Thoughtful estate planning ensures that your wishes are honored, and your loved ones are cared for, providing comfort and peace of mind.

We extend our heartfelt thanks to those who have included St. Ann Catholic Church in their estate plans. Your generosity elevates our faith community to the status of family and ensures that future generations of parishioners can enjoy the same opportunities and experiences we cherish today. If you have already made this kind gesture but haven't informed us, please let us know by emailing or calling (list name of parish contact at email/phone). We would be delighted to welcome you into our St. Ann Legacy Society, established to honor those who have included the parish in their estate plans. Again, we thank you for lifting up your faith family at St. Ann in this meaningful way.

Equipping Parents in their Mission of Love and Building a Community of Joy

“Love is shown by little things, by attention to small daily signs which make us feel at home. Faith grows when it is lived and shaped by love. That is why our families, our homes, are true domestic churches. They are the right place for faith to become life, and life to grow in faith.” Pope Francis

Save the Date

- 1. St. Ann Family Ministry Kick Off: September 1 after morning masses
Details: Short talk in the Allen center cafeteria for parents, outlining the plans for the year while children can play on the playground with supervision or young children can play quietly in the room with provided toys. There will be coffee and donuts available as well.

2. Family Potluck/Rosary night: September 14
For more information go to abearacres.org

3. Family Dance: September 27 6pm-9pm in the Allen Center Cafeteria

Register Now: Carolinas Retreat for Families: December 27- December 30 at Heartridge Retreat and Cultural Center, SC. Registration at: YHFRetreat.org

Challenge: Prioritize family prayer time this week: Resource at 33day.org If you do not pray regularly as a family, work on your schedule to try to commit to a daily time this week and select scripture and/or a devotion to do during prayer time. For those who have a regular family prayer time: select an intention for this weeks family prayers and a scripture meditation or ask older children to prepare one.

Fellowship Potluck
plan to attend!

St. Ann parishioners are hosting a family potluck following the 10:30am Mass on Sunday, August 25th in the Allen Center. Please bring a side, appetizer, or dessert to share and enjoy fellowship with other St. Ann families!

CATHOLIC EDUCATION

Faith Formation 2023-24 program for the children of registered parishioners in grades K-8 takes place from 9:00 to 10:10am between the Masses on Sunday. September 8th will be our first class. Registration for our fall classes will begin August 1st online. We are currently looking for a few teachers willing to sub for the fall classes. Contact Virginia Blatchford with questions at 704 523 4641 ext. 231 or Vlbatchford@rcdoc.org

St. Ann's Formed.org has kid FORMED movies, audio books, saint shows, and formation materials. Our parish code is Y6ZQ8M. A direct link is found on our parish website.

Mary, Queen Mother Dr. Edward Sri explains how the tradition of Mary's queenship and her intercessory role is rooted in the Old Testament office of the Queen Mother, as illustrated in the story of Bathsheba (see 1 Kings 1-2).

"Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy, and my burden light." (Matthew 11:28-30) St. Ann Parish endeavors to make the RCIA program much more than a program. Our desire is for the RCIA to be a learning and loving process in which conversion of the heart brings one to Jesus Christ and His Church. Join us for our next introductory session which will be on September 9th in the Allen Center at 7:00pm. Contact Virginia Blatchford with questions at 704 523 4641 ext. 231.

Sponsors are needed for new families each year. Therefore, we are looking for faith filled adults to sponsor new families for a baptism or new members at the Easter vigil in the coming year. Please prayerfully consider whether Our Lord is calling you to this ministry. For additional information or questions, contact Virginia Blatchford at 704 523 4641 ext. 231 or Vlbatchford@rcdoc.org

The Holy Eucharist: Body, Blood, Soul & Divinity

Join Good Catholic in the final months of the National Eucharistic Revival for an exclusive 40-minute documentary featuring Fr. Matthew Kauth and several St. Ann parishioners. Featuring priests, religious, and laypeople from all walks of life speaking about the healing power of this Sacrament. They speak of the grace from adoration, struggles they encounter, how the Eucharist has profoundly shaped their lives, and the divine identity of the Eucharist—the absolute truth of Christ's Real Presence in this Most Blessed Sacrament and His resounding call to us to believe. Check it out for free at <https://www.goodcatholic.com/body-blood-soul-and-divinity/>

2024 Eucharistic Congress

Bishop Michael Martin invites you to the Eucharistic Congress! It's an event like no other – inspiring speakers, concerts, a movie premiere, activities for families and young people, and most of all, worship of Jesus centered on the Eucharist, the source and summit of our Catholic faith.

Doors open at 4:30 p.m. Friday for the kickoff concert with Sarah Kroger. And don't miss the special reception with Bishop Martin and many of the speakers Friday night. Drop in for an hour or come both days – it's free and flexible (no registration required).

Fall Bible Study: Join the class for a ten week study of Exodus. We will travel with Moses through the desert as God leads His people to the Promised Land. We will also learn how the story of Exodus reveals who God is and what he calls us to be. Please review the book of Genesis so the story is fresh in your mind as we meet the God's people living in Egypt. We will meet in room 3 beginning on September 18 from 7 - 9 PM. Please email me (cece@cathoicexchange.com) that you wish to attend, so I will have materials for you. The workbook cost is $30 - cash or checks - written to St. Ann can be brought to the first meeting.

Catholic Charities Diocese of Charlotte is joining with the Catholic Charities network around the country to participate in We Are There, a national awareness campaign highlighting the life-giving services Catholic Charities agencies provide in their local communities.

For 75 years, Catholic Charities has brought comfort, hope and relief to our neighbors, regardless of their faith, in the Diocese of Charlotte. Catholic Charities' work impacts the 46 counties of the diocese through its strategic locations in Charlotte, Greensboro, Winston-Salem, Lenoir, North Wilkesboro, Asheville and Murphy. In the past year alone, the agency served nearly 23,000 people, distributing over 600,000 pounds of food and aiding nearly 900 refugees. The work that Catholic Charities does in western North Carolina is mirrored by services provided at Catholic Charities agencies around the country. There are 168 independent Catholic Charities agencies and 3,900 collective locations spread out across the United States and its five territories. Collectively, the Catholic Charities network served more than 15 million people last year and provided more than 30 million meals to those in need. The dedicated, selfless staff of Catholic Charities agencies are aided in this work by the indispensable contributions of more than 215,000 volunteers nationwide. The services offered by each local Catholic Charities agency differ because they are tailored to the specific needs of the vulnerable members of their individual communities.

Catholic Charities USA, the national membership organization for Catholic Charities agencies, organized and launched the We Are There campaign. Over the coming months, the campaign will raise awareness for Catholic Charities' work through a variety of national media outlets. Here in western North Carolina, Catholic Charities will continue to highlight the different ways we aid and accompany our neighbors in need. To learn more about the We Are There campaign, visit WeAreThere.US. To volunteer or make a gift to support the work of Catholic Charities Diocese of Charlotte, visit ccdcc.org.
