St. Ann's Parish Mission

St. Ann Parish seeks the salvation of souls through the redemption of Jesus Christ as revealed to us in and through the divinely instituted Holy Catholic Church.

We invite all to receive God's love as we give of ourselves in compassionate service.

June 8, 2025 • Pentecost Sunday

Dear Parishioners,

Happy Pentecost! This is one of the most important feasts of the year, and a privileged time of prayer. Considering all that has been going on in our diocese of late, I urge you to pray to the Holy Spirit for our bishop, asking Him to lead Bishop Martin in truth. It grieves me greatly that many of you are now faced with the stark choice of participating in the Mass you love at the new TLM chapel or continuing to worship here in your own parish. May the Spirit of Unity keep us all of one mind and heart in these difficult days, and ultimately bring us back together as one parish family in one church.

Despite “our recent unpleasantness” (to borrow a southern euphemism), we do have much to celebrate as a parish. This weekend two of our seminarians, Peter Townsend and Robbie Bauman, were ordained as deacons, along with five other young men from our diocese. Additionally, Deacon Townsend will be serving in our parish this summer, along with seminarian Clement Akerblom. Deacon Townsend and Clement will be with us until early August.

Also, we can rejoice that Fr. Jones is returning to us! While the good people of St. Margaret Mary in Swannanoa are certainly sad to lose him after only 6 months, we are thrilled to have him back – if even only on a part-time basis. As I mentioned at Mass last Sunday, Fr. Jones will be our parochial vicar during the week, but on Sundays he will be the chaplain for the TLM chapel in Mooresville. Fr. Raymond Ekosse, who will be the chaplain at Holy Trinity Catholic Middle School, will be helping with Sunday Masses. This is all good news!

Also, Bishop Martin will be visiting our parish to confer the Sacrament of Confirmation this Tuesday, 10 June 2025, at 6pm. This year we have 36 young people being confirmed. Please keep them in your prayers as they make this important step in their spiritual lives.

And please don’t forget that our annual Corpus Christi celebration is June 19-22. We will begin with a Corpus Christi Latin Mass on Thursday, 19 June 2025 at 7pm. That will be followed by 40 Hours of Eucharistic Adoration, which will conclude on Saturday, 21 June at 4pm. As always, we will have our annual Corpus Christi procession on Sunday, 22 June after the 10:30am Mass. Keep an eye out for information on how to sign up for an hour of adoration that weekend.

As was mentioned at Mass last Sunday, renovations on our school have begun, which means various parts of our campus will be inaccessible this summer. I apologize for the inconvenience. Also as I mentioned, our parish is still raising funds to help pay for the renovation. If you’d like to help with this project, there a button on the giving page of our parish website, or you can just put “School Renovation” in the memo line of a check made out to St. Ann.

Lastly, thanks to so many of you for your warm wishes as I celebrated my anniversary this past week. I’ve had 21 marvelous years of priesthood – and 18 of them right here with you. Thank you for your prayers and many kindness to me.

In the Holy Spirit,

Fr. Reid
