St. Ann's Parish Mission

St. Ann Parish seeks the salvation of souls through the redemption of Jesus Christ as revealed to us in and through the divinely instituted Holy Catholic Church.

We invite all to receive God's love as we give of ourselves in compassionate service.

September 14, 2025 • Exaltation of the Holy Cross

Dear Parishioners,

Greetings from Medjugorje! I am currently on pilgrimage here and will return at the end of this week. Please know that I am praying for all of you in this holy place.

This Sunday, 14 September 2025, is the Feast of the Triumph of the Cross! In the year 312, the pagan emperor Constantine began a march to retake Rome from his archrival Maxentius. The day before the decisive battle was to take place, Constantine had a vision in which he saw a cross and the words "In this sign, conquer." Thus, Constantine quickly had his goldsmiths make a cross-shaped standard to carry into battle. Led by this cross, Constantine's army met the forces of Maxentius at the Milvian Bridge outside of Rome, and by the end of the day, Maxentius was dead, his troops were scattered, and Constantine rode victoriously into Rome. The cross had triumphed, just as his vision promised.

A year later the Edict of Milan was published, which safeguarded Christians throughout the Roman Empire. Soon priests and bishops and deacons who had been hiding underground to avoid persecution became celebrated members of Constantine's court and grand basilicas began to be built.

In 320 Constantine's mother, St. Helen, decided to make a pilgrimage to the Holy Land in hopes of uncovering the Cross and Tomb of Christ. Upon arriving in Jerusalem she found a temple dedicated to the goddess Venus over the site of Calvary. Walking into the temple with the local bishop, she ordered it to be torn down, and it was in the demolition process that Christ's tomb and three separate crosses were found. Wanting to determine which of the three was indeed the True Cross, Helen had a person near death brought in to touch the crosses. The cross which brought about the miraculous cure of the suffering person was then recognized as our Lord's cross.

In 328 St. Helen made her way back to Rome, taking with her large parts of the True Cross, as well as other relics of our Lord's passion, all of which can be seen in the Basilica of Santa Croce in Gerusalemme. Today's feast marks the anniversary of the date that St. Helen found the True Cross ~1700 years ago. But this feast is not simply a liturgical reminder of St. Helen's great discovery. This is the day that we honor the Holy Cross by which Jesus Christ redeemed the world! We call this feast the Triumph of the Cross because it was through the cross that Christ conquered sin and even death itself.

In honor of this tremendous feast, we will have a relic of the True Cross in the church between Masses for veneration. Please treat the relic as you would the Eucharist by genuflecting before it.

Yours in Jesus and Mary,

Fr. Reid
