St. Ann's Parish Mission

St. Ann Parish seeks the salvation of souls through the redemption of Jesus Christ as revealed to us in and through the divinely instituted Holy Catholic Church.

We invite all to receive God's love as we give of ourselves in compassionate service.

December 7, 2025 • Second Sunday of Advent

Dear Parishioners,

This Monday, 08 December 2025, is the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception. It is a holy day of obligation. Thus, we will have Masses at 7 a.m., 12 noon, and 6 p.m., so please plan to attend one of those Masses. I am grateful to the many of you who are praying the Novena in preparation for the dedication of our parish to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, which we will celebrate after the 6 p.m. Mass on Monday. This is something we've been doing for several years now, and it's something that I believe brings great graces to our parish.

In years past we've offered an annual Rorate Mass on a Saturday in December. This votive Mass in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary takes its name from the first words of the Introit: "Rorate coeli, desuper et nubes pluant justum," which is translated: "Drop down dew, ye heavens, from above, and let the clouds rain down the Just." While we are no longer allowed to offer Latin Masses at St. Ann's, we're still going to have a special Advent Mass in honor of Our Lady on Saturday, 20 December at 6:30 a.m. As with our Rorate Masses in the past, this Novus Ordo Mass will be celebrated using only candlelight, a reminder that the world was in darkness before the coming of the True Light of the World, Jesus Christ. I'll think you'll find it a Mass that is so wonderfully suited to the Advent theme of hopeful expectation of the coming of the Christ Child. Please come and join us as we anticipate the dawning of the Son of God at Christmas.

Lastly, we still have not met our Diocesan Support Appeal Goal (DSA) for this year. We are roughly $18,000 short of our assessment. If you haven't donated to the DSA yet, now is a great time to do so. If we fall short of our assessment (which is $149,240 this year), we must make up the missing funds from our general operating account. And please consider giving generously to the 5-Year Plan as you plan your end-of-year giving. We still have a debt to pay off for rectory mortgage, and several other projects we hope to undertake in the coming years. Thanks for your generosity!

In hopeful expectation of our Lord's coming,

Fr. Reid

Please support our St. Vincent de Paul Society

People across the Charlotte area, Catholic and non-Catholic, call the church looking for some emergency assistance. Volunteers from our St. Vincent de Paul Society talk to these neighbors of ours and can provide some short term help, like with a power, water, or gas bill. There are many people looking for help and the St. Vincent de Paul treasury is depleted, even with a generous subsidy from the parish tithing fund. You can of course donate any time online! Or if you are interested in volunteering with our St. Vincent de Paul Society, please contact our office and Sr. Mary Lydia can connect you with the right person. Thank you for your generosity to your neighbors in need!

Fr. Reid's homilies (audio & PDF) & the bulletins are posted on the website: www.StAnnCharlotte.org

Faith Formation: The St. Ann Faith Formation program for the children of registered parishioners in grades K-8 takes place from 9:00 to 10:10am between the Masses on Sunday. Online registration takes place at the St. Ann parish website. Our classes run each Sunday. Contact Virginia Blatchford with questions at faithformation@stanncharlotte.org 1st Communion Parents: Be sure to work weekly at home on the 1st Communion Packet. The homework packet is due at the First Confession Retreat on January 31st from 9-12noon in the Allen Center.

Confirmation Parents: Be sure to work weekly at home on the Prior Knowledge Packet. The signed pages are due at the confirmation retreat on March 14th from 830am-300pm at Belmont Abbey. Note our confirmation students interview before they receive confirmation. Interviews will be on March 23 from 4 to 7 pm. Gather in the entry to the Allen Center and sign in as you arrive. Students will be interviewed by our Deacons, Priests, or teachers.

We also have our Confirmation date of April 19th at the 1230 Mass. Rehearsal is the day before on April 18th at 2pm. Sponsors and Candidates will gather in the Church. Be prompt so we can start on time. Teen Apologetics- We meet on each of the Faith Formation days from 9:00am-10:10am. We are using a Fulton Sheen source for our apologetics, and we meet upstairs in the Allen Center, classroom 1 and 2! Bring a friend.

Prayerfully consider if you are being called to be a sponsor for a man, woman, or child that is coming into the Church at the Easter Vigil or being confirmed after a time away from the Catholic Church on Divine Mercy Sunday. This ministry asks you to get to know the person you will sponsor. You can meet with them, share a coffee, and make a phone call to talk or answer questions. You will pray for them as they attend Monday evening classes, and be present on the day they receive their sacraments. If you would like to share your faith in this way, please send me an email to: faithformation@stanncharlotte.org

The Gift That Endures: As Advent draws us closer to the joy of Christmas, we are reminded that the most meaningful gifts are those that endure. A gift to St. Ann Catholic Church or School in your will or trust or a gift to establish an endowment are ways to extend the love and faith you carry today into the future ... blessing parishioners you may never meet. If you have already made this heartfelt commitment, thank you. If you are discerning, we invite you to learn more about how your legacy of faith can nurture the mission of St. Ann for generations.

Natural Marriage Group

Knowing that marriage and the family constitute one of the most precious of human values, the Church wishes to speak and offer her help to those who are already aware of the value of marriage and the family and seek to live it faithfully, to those who are uncertain and anxious and searching for the truth, and to those who are unjustly impeded from living freely their family lives. Supporting the first, illuminating the second and assisting the others, the Church offers her services to every person who wonders about the destiny of marriage and the family.

These words were not written today, but come to us from our beloved St John Paul the great in 1981, in his Apostolic Exhortation Familiaris Consortio. They are obviously even more true today than they were then. With our passionate conviction that marriage and family is, as he says, "one of the most precious of human values", we at this parish seek to support and accompany families to a greater degree than they might normally find. All of our ministries are directed at helping form, encourage and support our families' growth in holiness at every age and stage. One new way we have been doing this for the past year, is hosting an NFP support group here at the parish, for seasons in marriage where more support is needed - whether that be emotionally, physically or spiritually.

Launched last year as a highly successful pilot in three Catholic parishes across the country, this program offers engaged and married couples a space to learn about and support one another in NFP, fertility, and relationships.

Are you in a season where you have serious reasons for avoiding pregnancy, but NFP still feels burdensome and hard? This is what our NFP support group is for. One hour, once a month, for both spouses, led by trained couples - and with free childcare!

Our next meeting will be Sunday, December 7, in classroom 1 (upstairs in the church office) after the 10:30 mass, from 12-1pm. Our next meeting will be the first Sunday of every month.

Hospitality Committee

St. Ann's Hospitality Committee is one of our most important parish ministries. The Hospitality Committee is in charge of providing receptions for 1st Communion, Confirmation, the Easter Vigil, and other parish-wide social events as they arise (usually 5 or 6 total events/year), and organizing monthly coffee and donuts after Sunday Masses. We are currently looking for two new co-chairs for this committee. One co-chair will be responsible for recruiting volunteers and planning food for events, while the other co-chair will be responsible for directing set-up and clean-up for events. If you are willing to serve as one of the co-chairs of this vital committee, please contact Sr. Mary Lydia at 704-523-4641, ext. 221.
