St. Ann's Parish Mission

St. Ann Parish seeks the salvation of souls through the redemption of Jesus Christ as revealed to us in and through the divinely instituted Holy Catholic Church.
We invite all to receive God's love as we give of ourselves in compassionate service.

January 11, 2026 • The Baptism of the Lord

Dear Parishioners,

I'm grateful to all of you who attended the Charlotte March for Life this past Friday. Please keep in mind that the National Right to Life March is coming up on Friday, 23 January 2026, in Washington, D.C. I hope that some of you will also attend that march. While Roe v. Wade has been overturned, abortion is still very much a reality in our country and in our state. There's still much, much work to do to protect the unborn from the horrible evil of abortion. Attending these marches is simply one way for us to demonstrate our commitment to pro-life causes.

Of course, we mustn't neglect the spiritual work of prayer and fasting, and in this vein, perhaps we can all take on a few extra penances this month to make reparation for terrible sin of abortion. I also encourage you to offer extra prayers, especially the Holy Rosary, for an end to abortion in our country. Further, I very much encourage you to support the organizations in our community that provide services to women that help them avoid the evil of abortion, like MiraVia and Birthright of Charlotte.

On another note, for decades our parish has supported the Missionaries of the Poor (MOP), especially in Jamaica, Uganda, and most recently in India. Over the years our parish has provided a tremendous amount of financial support to help serve the poorest of the poor in these places, and I plan for our parish to continue doing this. To this end, next month I will be going with Deacon Peter and a few others to visit the MOP in the Philippines to see what our parish can do for them. Although we will likely continue to support the MOP in India to some degree in the future, I think it's time for us to provide support to another mission. If you'd like to contribute to our fund for the MOP, you can do on our website or by writing a check to St. Ann with "MOP" in the memo line.

In Jesus, Mary, and Joseph,

Rev TS Reid

Fr. Reid

Prayerfully consider if you are being called to be a sponsor for a man, woman, or child that is coming into the Church at the Easter Vigil or being confirmed after a time away from the Catholic Church on Divine Mercy Sunday. This ministry asks you to get to know the person you will sponsor. You can meet with them, share a coffee, and make a phone call to talk or answer questions. You will pray for them as they attend Monday evening classes, and be present on the day they receive their sacraments. Please send me an email if you would like to share your faith in this way:

Continuing Your Story of Faith:

Each of us leaves behind a story.

For many parishioners, that story is centered around faith, family, and the spiritual home we share at St. Ann. By remembering the parish or school in your estate plans, you can continue your story of faith into the future. Thank you to those who have already chosen to share this blessing.

RULES FOR LIFE

A Study of the Rules of Sts. Basil, Benedict & Augustine

MONDAYS, JANUARY 26TH - FEBRUARY 9TH

8:00 - 9:15 PM EST

■ LIVE ONLINE LECTURE SERIES

The great "rules" of Saints Basil, Augustine and Benedict outline a monastic guide for living in community. However, far from a list of "dos" and "don'ts" for monks and nuns, the wisdom contained in these patristic writings offer a guiding light for all Christians as we seek to live the life of the Most Holy Trinity – the life of love - in our relationships with one another.

REV. DAVID ANDERSON

Fr. David is a priest of the Ukrainian Catholic Eparchy of Chicago. A renowned translator of patristic texts, he also teaches on liturgy and the Fathers nationwide and serves as Byzantine-rite chaplain at Wyoming Catholic College.

REV. BONIFACE HICKS, O.S.B.

Fr. Boniface is a monk of Saint Vincent Archabbey and serves in spiritual formation at their seminary. He has authored several books on spiritual direction, prayer, and the Mass, and is a highly sought-after retreat master.

REV. SEBASTIAN WALSH, O. PRAEM

Fr. Sebastian is a Norbertine Canon of the Abbey of St. Michael in California. Holding a doctorate in philosophy from the Angelicum, he teaches philosophy and theology for the Norbertine seminary and other institutions.

LIVE ONLINE COURSE

 The greatest art in history has flowed from the Christian faith. God has suffused his creation with splendor, which he took upon himself as the Word became flesh. This course explores Catholic visual art spanning two millennia—from humble house churches to grand cathedrals, ancient frescoes to Renaissance masterpieces. We'll explore the breadth of the Catholic imagination, covering significant masterpieces and artists while contemplating the truths of faith they convey.

JARED STAUDT, PH.D.

Jared Staudt, Ph.D., serves as Director of Content for Exodus 90 and as an instructor for Rosary College. He is the author of Words Made Flesh: The Sacramental Mission of Catholic Education (Catholic Education Press) and How the Eucharist Can Save Civilization (TAN).
